

WITH ALL EYES ON THE TRACK

Luncheon in the Thoroughbred Room at Hollywood Park will precede the 1 p.m. post time for the first race on May 18 when the Peninsula Committee, Spastic Children's League, sponsors its second annual "Day at the Races." Visiting the park, to make sure that all is in readiness, are, from left, Mmes. Robert K. Garland, ways and means co-chairman; Ludwig Smith, luncheon chairman, and Gerald S. Honey, president. Proceeds will go to the Spastic Children's Foundation and the United Cerebral Palsy Nursery in Long Beach.

For Spastic Children

League Sponsors 'Day At The Races'

A "Day at The Races" is being planned for May 18 by the Peninsula Committee of the Spastic Children's League. Mrs. G. Roger Smith, Jr., is chairman of this second annual benefit to be staged in the clubhouse at Inglewood's Hollywood Park.

★ ★ ★

Guests will be served a buffet luncheon in the Thoroughbred Room. Chartered buses will leave the lower parking lot of Buffums' in the Peninsula Center at 11:15 a.m. for those wishing transportation. They will depart from in front of the clubhouse after the eighth race of the afternoon.

★ ★ ★

On the racing card a race will be named for the auxiliary to the Spastic Children's League. President Mrs. Gerald S. Honey and Mrs. Smith will go to the winner's circle to congratulate the winning jockey and owner.

The new building program at the Spastic Children's Foundation in Los Angeles will benefit from the proceeds, as well as the therapeutic work being done for the pre-school children attending the United Cerebral Palsy Nursery in Long Beach.

★ ★ ★

Assisting Mrs. Smith with plans are Mrs. George Bundy and Mrs. Robert Newsom, tickets and reservations; Mrs. Stanley D. Owen and Mrs. Harry J. Blee, invitations; Mrs. Ludwig Smith, luncheon; and Mrs. John K. Novascone, transportation.

The donation will cover admission to the clubhouse and to the reserved seat section. Tickets may be obtained by calling Mrs. George Bundy or Mrs. Robert Newsom.

STEPPING INTO FASHION

Mrs. Larry Hannan, center, models one of spring's newest costumes, watched by Mrs. Edward Ward, left and Mrs. Virgil Paine, as they rehearse for the annual Fashion-Luncheon to be staged by the Torrance Ladies of the Elks on May 6 aboard the SS Princess Louise. A cocktail hour at 11:30 a.m. will be followed by luncheon and a fashion parade. Mrs. Tony Alonge may be contacted for tickets. (Press-Herald Photo)

Bay Harbor Hospital

Guild Announces New Officers

Mrs. Charles H. Sell of Torrance has been elected president of the Bay Harbor Hospital Guild for the year 1967-68.

The new president is originally from South Dakota, where she taught for seven years and served as postmaster for nine years. Coming to California, she and Mr. Sell settled in San Pedro, moving to Torrance 10 years ago where Mr. Sell is in business.

★ ★ ★

Active with the Bay Harbor Hospital Guild since its organization in 1957, Mrs. Sell has served as president, recording secretary, and has held many chairmanships including volunteers and Candy Strippers.

Other new officers elected to serve with her are Mmes. Thomas Yoshida, vice president; Wade White, treasurer; Don Turpin, recording secretary; Charles Crawford, corresponding secretary.

★ ★ ★

New chairmen appointed by Mrs. Sell include Mmes. Ted Springfield, gift shop; Glenn Wyndmore, vending machines; William R. Russell, ways and means; Olin C. Grubbs, publicity; Katie Crooks, volunteers; Van B. Lisman, maternity teas.

Others are Mmes. Fred Pierce, Candy Strippers and blood bank; John Wirsin, sewing club; J. F. Pilgreen, hours; Dorla Barrows, arts and crafts; John Street, hospitality; and C. F. Lorge, parliamentarian.

★ ★ ★

The Guild will install its new officers at a dinner on May 20 at the Palms restaurant.

Press-Herald

Social World

Edna Cloyd, Editor

MAY 3, 1967

B-1

Torrance Ladies Of The Elks

Fashion-Luncheon May 6

Jewel studded shoes, filled with bright colored feather flowers, will decorate the tables in the dining room at the S.S. Princess Louise at Terminal Island on May 6 when the Torrance Ladies of the Elks stage their annual Fashion-Luncheon.

★ ★ ★

"Stepping into Fashionland" is the theme of the event for which Mrs. Ed Ward is serving as general chairman. Her co-chairman is Mrs. Pete Fahnestock, who will serve as commentator.

★ ★ ★

A cocktail hour will begin at 11:30 a.m. followed by a parade of new spring and summer fashions provided by a San Pedro firm. The fashions will be modeled by Lady Elks, Mmes. Ken Falconer, Larry Hannan, Tony Rembis, Harry Alexander, Virgil Paine, Barbara Decker and Miss Kathy Ward.

★ ★ ★

There will also be a showing of wigs and a makeup demonstration by a Rolling Hills salon.

Mrs. Elmer Lancaster is in charge of the decorations; Mrs. Marvin Jones, program; Mmes. Ed Ward and Bob LeBlond, door prizes; Tony Alonge, luncheon tickets; and Don Lemen and Hal Berry, major door prize.

Future Bride

DEANNA CASEY

Casey - Strapp

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne D. Casey, 2071 236th Place, Torrance, entertained at a dinner party recently at their home during which the engagement of their daughter, Deanna Michele, to Melvin Duane Strapp was announced.

The couple is planning a July wedding at Nativity Catholic Church.

The future bride, a Narbonne High school graduate, attended St. Vincent's School of Nursing. She is employed by the Torrance Memorial Hospital.

Her fiance, son of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Strapp of San Pedro, is a graduate of Fermin Lasuen High school. He attended Long Beach State College and is employed by the United States Navy.

Prepare for Convention Festivities

A contingent of 35 couples consisting of Jaycees and their wives, the Jaycettes, will head south tomorrow to be on hand for a weekend of State Convention festivities in San Diego. Vacation Village will be headquarters for the Torrance delegates. A "Night on the Town" for husbands and wives has been set up for Friday evening at the Coronado Hotel. On Saturday, for the Jaycettes, there will be a Fashion Show-luncheon. Two other activities, a luau and a visit to Sea World are catching the attention of the Jaycettes, shown at the left making plans for the luau, Mrs. Ralph Grippo, with a bowl of poi, offers poi to Mrs. Harold Lindborg, registering dislike for the delicacy; Mrs. Richard Spaan practicing the hula; while Mrs. James Hussey and Mrs. Dempsey Morris discuss the traditional "flower-in-the-hair" custom. (Press-Herald Photo)

(Press-Herald Photo)

Oakland Is Destination

They'll get there if they have to employ all modes of transportation. They are Catholic Daughters from three local courts, off to their Biennial Conference at the Leamington Hotel in Oakland, May 4 to 7. Mrs. Frank Ives, front, on skates, grand regent of Our Lady of Victory Court, gets directions from Mrs. L. Marriott, grand regent of Court Madonna of the Hills, on a go-cart, getting a push from Mrs. Wesley Muzik, state chairman of world missions. Mrs. Robert Klaesges, Court St. Catherine, on the bicycle, has Mrs. Louie Derouin, grand regent, Court St. Catherine, on the handlebars, while in the back, choosing an easier way, Mmes. Charles Butterfield and Laura Kuhn, both representing Court St. Catherine, get into a car. Others from Court Our Lady of Victory attending will be Mmes. Richard Abshear, Basil Shannon, and Ronald Metro. Also representing Court St. Catherine will be Mmes. Paul Labonawski, Elles Cook, Richard Ban, and Paul Hiszen. Miss Jayne Kilcoyne, of Torrance, district deputy and member of Court St. Michael, Westchester, will accompany the delegates. (Press-Herald Photo)

(Press-Herald Photo)

MRS. CHARLES H. SELL
... 1967-68 Guild President

